SHOT SHELLS ARE LITTER, PICK THEM UP.

All hunters are responsible for cleaning up after themselves. Shell casings (shotshell hulls) and associated debris constitute litter and must be picked up and packed out. Littering while hunting or fishing are violations which may result in criminal and/or fines. It only takes a few minutes at the end of the hunt to pick up which keeps the area clean for other users, protects wildlife and will help preserve Colorado River Indian Tribe's hunting tradition for future generations.

Section 1-501. Unlawful Acts; It is unlawful for any person to:
(7) Litter a hunting or fishing area.

NOTICE:

To prevent hunting excess of prescribed limits, it is prohibited for hunters to "group" their takings into a community chest or bag without properly tagging each killed bird. Please refer to the below tagging requirements. Hunting or taking of wildlife in excess of the prescribed limit may result in the imposition of criminal and/or civil fines and/or civil damages, including, but limited to $25.00 per excess migratory game bird/waterfowl, and/or revocation of hunting permit. The Colorado River Indian Tribes Fish & Game Department is advising each hunter to maintain his or her own bag.

Tagging Requirements: Each killed bird must be tagged with a waterproof material (permanent marker) if placed in a container. It is permissible to use adhesive labels for the exterior or wired tags if the bag is not placed in water. Each bird must be tagged with the following information: the hunter's name and address; hunting permit number; hunter's Driver's License; number and species of birds; and the date taken.

Remember to leave a full feathered wing attached! Violators will be issued violation notices.

Migratory Game Bird Hunting Seasons, Taking, Possession:

General Doves:

Ethical Hunting is Everyone's Business Continued;

Hunting is a heritage we all share and together we can continue to share it for generations to come."

Brian Wakeling, Game Branch Chief
Arizona Game and Fish Department

What are Ethics?

Ethics generally relate to fairness, respect and responsibility. Aldo Leopold once said ethical behavior is doing the right thing when no one else is watching even when doing the wrong thing is legal. They are the personal unwritten rules that we value. When we talk about an ethical hunter their behaviors an example of the sportsmanship they demonstrate in the field.

Ethics with Non-hunters

Show respect for other users of the land and their property. They possess the same rights as you do to use the lands; Be courteous to non-hunters when transporting your game from the field. Transport animals discretely; Don't leave remains of field dressing in places where it is easily visible. Respect other people that may be walking by; clean up to the best of your ability before entering into a public place when returning from a hunt if you cannot change cloths. Present a professional image; Take tasteful photographs of your hunt; Invite someone new to come hunting with you.
