ARTICLE 1. SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION

[NOTE: Except as otherwise noted, the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration Code were enacted on June 10, 2010, by Ordinance 10-02, effective on July 15, 2010.]

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL MATTERS

Section 1-101. Title.

This Code/Code shall be known as Colorado River Indian Tribes (“Tribe” or “CRIT”) Sex Offender Registration Code.

Section 1-102. Purpose.

The intent of this code is to implement the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA), Title I of Public Law 109-248, and shall be interpreted liberally to comply with the terms and conditions of SORNA as presently written or hereafter amended.

Section 1-103. Need.

Violent crime in Indian Country is more than twice the national average. On some reservations it is twenty times the national average. An astounding thirty percent of Indian and Alaska Native women will be raped in their lifetimes. Tribal nations are disproportionately affected by violent crime and sex offenses in particular from both Indian and non-Indian perpetrators; consequently, the conduct and presence of convicted sex offenders in Indian Country threatens the political integrity, economic security, health and welfare of tribal nations even to the point of imperiling the subsistence of tribal communities.

Section 1-104. Creation of Registries.

(a) Sex Offender Registry. There is hereby established a sex offender registry, which the Colorado River Indian Tribes Law Enforcement Services (“CRIT LES”) shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this code, as amended.

(b) Public Sex Offender Registry Website. There is hereby established a public sex offender registry website, which the CRIT LES shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this code, as amended.
